Dear Anne,

As we approach the end of our first term I must tell you how much I've enjoyed working with you, value the ideas and energy with which you stimulate and which sometimes prod me, and admire the skill and dedication you put into your mission.

I look back fondly at what we have been through together - the Murphy Commission, the campaign of 1980 and these four years. To think that it might have all come to an end if we hadn't been so fast in dodging that traffic on Airport Boulevard in Los Angeles when I scored one of my great successes in getting you to come into the Reagan Campaign as Co-Chairman.

Love,

William J. Casey

The Honorable Anne Armstrong
